Chapter 1 by LiamLeblanc13

You bolt upright in bed. Something doesn't feel right, so you look out the window. "Is it always this dark?" you ask yourself.

It could simply just be a stormy day. It is quite possible. But you know, at the bottom of your heart that it is much more than that.

Something tells you that is something you have known will happen.

Something you have been preparing for.

Something you caused.

It is the beginning of The End.

Chapter 2 by Panda Jesus

You get out of bed and scramble around for the military gear everyone thought you were a fool for buying. Who is the fool now?!

Wearing your full dress battle uniform you run down to your cellar where you've stored six months of food rations and enough weapons to equip an army.

Checking all your air filter
